

OBITUARY.

It is with feelings of deep regret we announce the death of Mr. William Rodrique, of this city.

Mr. Rodrique was a native of Philadelphia, and was of French descent. At the close of his collegiate education he visited France, and during his three years' stay devoted himself to the study of art with the view of adopting it as his profession.

Mr. Rodrique was related to the late Archbishop of New York, having been married to the sister of that distinguished prelate—a lady who is beloved and respected by all who possess the honor of her friendship or acquaintance.

DEATH.—We have never read anything more beautiful than the following from the pen of George D. Prentice:

"There is but a breath of air and a beat of the heart betwixt this world and the next. And in the brief interval of painful and awful suspense, while we feel that death is present with us, that we are powerless, and he all powerful, and the last faint pulsation here is but the prelude of endless life hereafter, we feel, in the midst of the stunning calamity about to befall us, that the earth has no compensating good to mitigate the severity of our loss.

To PREPARE LARD.—Cut the fat into small pieces, and put in a pot without water or salt, to simmer over a very slow fire; stir it up frequently that it may not stick or burn.

IMPORTANT TO EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, TRUSTEES, &c.—In a circular addressed to United States Assessors, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue says: "Pains should be taken to acquaint executors, administrators, trustees, &c., of their personal liability for legacy taxes, and that it is not only their legal duty but for their own private interest and protection to pay legacy taxes and succession taxes, under section 138, upon each sum before it is paid over to the legatee, distributee or successor."
